

SOCIAL LEADERSHIP TRAINING PROGRAMME

European Summer School: Towards Resilient Communities

is a social leadership training programme that aims to create and develop an intergenerational group of skilled community leaders/social activists and change agents from diverse communities and particularly from BAME communities.

The learning activities will give participants new framework for enabling positive change in their communities.

To receive more information and an application form please contact Aisha Khan, Project Development Officer, at aisha.khan@ubele.org

Please note that all participants are asked to pay an administrative charge of £100 per course. Bursaries will be available. Flights, accommodation, food and training costs will be covered. Individuals can apply for ONE or TWO (one in Amsterdam and one in Berlin) of the four courses in this programme. If you apply for 2 courses you will pay two administrative fees.

APPLY FOR TRAINING COURSES!

AMSTERDAM

5th – 9th July 2018 (including travel)

2 courses running at the same time

Introduction to Black Europe facilitated by Untold
Systems Thinking and Social Change facilitated by Reos

BERLIN

11th – 14th September

and 14th -17th September 2018

4 short courses (2 running during each period of time)

Introduction to Theory U facilitated by Impuls
Facilitating the U Process facilitated by Impuls
Action Learning facilitated by Impuls

APPLICATION DEADLINE: FRIDAY, 11TH MAY 2018